Paul Hobbs Pinot noir

£90

USA

A tantalising palate offers a medley of boysenberry, currants, violets, clove and cocoa. Tannins are sweet and smooth; balanced acidity brightens a lengthy finish.

Alter Ego de Château Palmer

£180

France

Alter Ego de Palmer is the second wine of Margaux Third Growth, Château Palmer. It was created to be as equally terroir-driven and expressive as the grand vin, but would be supple, rounded and more approachable in youth.

Silky texture, graceful tannins, and lingering finish, this wine delivers a harmonious balance of fruit, structure, and finesse. Immerse yourself in the allure of Alter Ego de Palmer and experience the essence of Château Palmer's legacy in every sip.

Rosé Wine

Fine and delicate bubbles a crisp and refreshing taste and a clean long lasting finish.

Crémant De Bordeaux Precious Day NV

£55

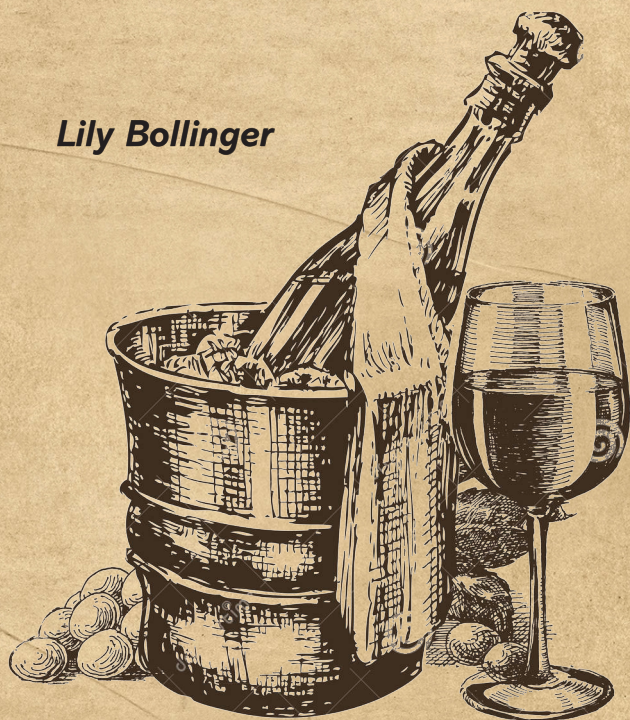

France

A great value alternative to champagne, this traditional method sparkling wine is a blend of Semillon and Merlot, and it's acidity combined with the red berry notes that the Merlot brings makes it a great pairing for brie and cranberry.

*"I only drink champagne when I'm happy and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company
I consider it obligatory.*

*I trifle with it if I'm not hungry and drink it when I am, otherwise
I never touch it, unless I'm thirsty."*

------------------	------------------	-------------------

Veuve Cliquot

£13.5

£95

£195

Veuve Clicquot privileges excellence and quality, using grapes from predominately Grands and Premier Crus and only using the juice from the Cuvée (the only pressing of the grapes). The Champagne is dominated by Pinot Noir, with Chardonnay bringing its elegance, freshness and delicacy and finally Pinot Meunier delivering the fruit.

Veuve Cliquot Rosé

£110

Made using 50 to 60 different crus, the cuvee is based on Brut Yellow Label's traditional blend, 44% to 48% Pinot Noir, 13% to 18% Meunier, 25% to 29% Chardonnay. Coppery-orange colour. Expressive aromas of strawberry and very ripe wild strawberries.

Moët & Chandon

£100

Created from more than 100 different wines, of which 20% to 30% are reserve wines specially selected to enhance its maturity, complexity and constancy.

Bollinger

£110

Bollinger is made from first-run juice only, and the majority of vineyards used have Premier and Grand Cru status, resulting in a full-bodied Champagne of great class.

Laurent Perrier Rosé

£125

£220

For Cuvée Rosé Laurent-Perrier, the Pinot Noir grapes picked in the dedicated plots are selected for their perfect ripeness and manually sorted in Laurent-Perrier harvest stations, then destemmed to retain only the berries before they go into the maceration tanks.

Dom Pérignon

£300

Dom Pérignon is the most famous Champagne in the world, and for good reason. The bouquet sparkles with delicate fresh violets in a setting of white peaches. The soft delicate flavours continue while the senses are tickled by the most delicate of fine bubbles. Though this is such a fine delicate wine, the complexity is astounding, along with its length. Stunning.

Draught Beers

Asahi

£6.8

Japan (5.2%)

Asahi brought an entirely new genre of beer to Japan, and then to the world. Brewed to the authentic Japanese recipe to deliver it's dry crisp taste and clean finish.

Pardál

£6.8

Czech Republic (4.2%)

An easy-drinking lager with a full mouthfeel and a bitter but well-balanced taste. Pardal is unique, with a sessionable ABV of 3.8%, but more flavour than many 4 or 5% beers. Pardal is brewed using the soft water from Budvars 10,000-year-old well.

Meantime Anytime IPA

£6.8

England (4.7%)

A true Session IPA, this beer is packed full of hop flavour with a lower ABV to create a very drinkable beer with a low bitterness.

Cornish Orchards Raspberry & Elderflower

£6.5

South West, England (4%)

A wonderfully balanced, gently sparkling cider made with crisp dessert apples hand-picked for their flavour. The fruity aroma of fresh raspberries compliments the sweet yet delicate elderflower notes.
